HON. STERLING JOHNSON, JR.

TIME A.M. _____
P.M. _____

On or About July 28, 2018 I was convicted of Criminal Contempt in a New York State court, which violates my Federal probation. Please allow me to explain

A scornful paramour got an order of protection against me. I was never notified of the order and subsequently violated it.

During my instant period of incarceration my wife and I affirmed our commitment to strengthen our union and be the parents our children and grandchildren need. She has forgiven my infidelity and I will never engage in an extra-marital affair again.

I spend my time here participating in the food service program and acquiring more qualifications/skills in the Building Maintenance and electrical trades. But the most important activity of the day is my phone calls with my family.

My wife and children are very loving, kind and incredibly supportive as a family we ask if you would consider crediting my Federal Probation time with my State time. It would allow me to get home to my wife and our family so I can support and care for them.

Thank you for your kind consideration of my request.

Respectfully,
CC: Gregory Lowry
